FOR PRESIDENT, HORATIO SEYMOUR. OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, FRANCIS P. BLAIR, Jr., OF MISSOUBL.

THE NEWS:

Hon. Wm. M. Evarts has been sworn in and entered on the duties of Attorney General of the United States.

Gen. Gillem has reported to headquarters at Washington that the Radical Constitution for Mississippi has been defeated by 7629 majority. Only one Radical member of Congress (McKee) is returned as elected.

The President nominated to the Senate, W. P. Wells, to be Assistant Treasurer; Jno. S. Darkins, of Pennsylvania, to be Minister Plenipotentiary to Russia; Christopher L. Cox, of Maryland, as Commissioner of Pensions : Henry M. Watte, as Minister to Austria, Elisha Poote, of New York, as Commissioner of Patents; W. E. Rosecrans, as Minister Extraordinary to Spain; John McClernand, of Illinois, as Minister to Mexico; Edmund Cooper, as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Pat Muller Register of Public Moneys, at Great excitement prevailed yesterday and to-day, but there has been no outbreak.

Brazil has sent, in all, 84,219 troops to Paraguay, of which 43,000 are at Humaita. Twelve iron steam launches have arrived from England for the Amazon.

The Indians around Fort Larned, on the Arkansas, are en the war path, the Government having refused to pay them their annuities. A lieutenant and five soldiers belonging to the fort had been killed. General Sally was actively proparing for the campaign.

The People Against the Politicians. As we anticipated and predicted, instead of harm being done by sending Gen. Forrest and other Southern generals to the Convention at New York as delegates, much good is the result every way. The prejudices of many have been removed. They have learned who our men are, and how to appreciate and trust them, knowing men of honor always can be trusted. And the warmest appreciation and fraternity at New York was the result, as is established by the statements of gentlemon who were present. Gen. F. has returned home, bringing the most encouraging accounts, and not entertaining a doubt of the election of Seymour and Blair. The whole patriotism and intellect of the North is aroused. And the real people, the men of wisdom, virtue and nerve, against the venal political backs, have determined, that thus far as they have gone, and no further shall the waves of usurpation go-The people of that quarter are moving against the politicians to save the coun-

Mr. Greeley says "Democracy is revo-lution." That is true. But it is revolution from usurpations, higher-law vil-lainies, oppression of a whole people, extravagant waste, dishonesty and po tions on the public funds, to obedience to the Constitution, return to public and private virtue, liberty, economy and ntegrity, with individual and universal onfidence, prosperity and greatness. It s a revolution from criminal infamies to great virtue and glory. He says, also, "Democracy means repudiation." And this, too, is true. It repudiates the idea that a war-worn, imporerished, desolate, heavily-taxed and oppressed people should go beyond their contract, and undertake to be generous and pay in undertake to be generous and pay in gold, when they are unable to pay in greenbacks. It repudiates the idea that the poor should be ground down by taxation, in order to exempt the rich from being taxed. It repudiates the idea that it is a point of honor to pamper dea that it is a point of honor to pamper and fatten the aristocratic Lords of the Bonds, and in order to do it, make the poor and toiling millions of America work to pay their taxes. It repudiates the idea that the rich, who ride in coaches, are so much better than the poor, who toil and walk, that a better currency must be provided for them than is provided for the people. And it repudiates the idea that the great capitalists of New country, should be loaded down with gold and pay no taxes to the public treasury, while the poor laboring men and mechanics of the country, the soldiers, their wives and little ones, widows and orphans, shall be paid in rags, and compelled by the sweat of their brows to pay the taxes which the Lords should pay themselves. The Democratic party does indeed repudiate these things. Such is the extent of its dishonor. Its intention is to restore all the interests of der of a prisoner of war, who had surthe country, so that all may prosper together, and to pay all in gold or none. And, moreover, says Mr. Greeley. Democracy means despotism." He is very hostile to despotism. He prefers anarchy or an oligarchy, in which he and his few friends may rule and grind down the poor, in the interest of the Nabobs.

York and other cities, who live in palaces, and laid in the shade and specu-lated and grew great, while millions were giving their time, their money, the cemforts of home and their lives to their

Counts, Barons and Dukes, of New York. Well, if Democracy means despotism, is not any possible change preferable to what | yield to the law of force, and will still we have? These Radical doctors have stand good, though millions vote them thrown the country into fits, and now they insist on continuing their oligarchy of the ruffle shirt gentry because they are "hell on fits." By their acts have they shown themselves quacks and tyrants. Does Mr. Greeley suppose that the people of America is such an incorrigible big fool as not to know that any single despotism is better than his damnable oligarchy of perjured thieves who prate honesty and liberty, only that they may continue to deceive, steal and rule? Not at all. He is merely throwrigible big fool as not to know that any and others patrolled the streets on horseback, rule? Not at all. He is merely throwing his last card. And what he believes moiter, and discovering no signs of hostility. they returned to town and made a report that quieted all fears. A short time afterward ing him or by jesting about the habits of Ezelland three others rode just outside of town Blair. These men are defeated to day by the Federal Government of the Sates in the rebullion, and it is equally well known that Virginia, as well as New York, was at all times during the war, recognized by the Federal Government of the Sates in the rebullion, and it is equally well known that Virginia, as well as New York, was at all times during the war, recognized by the Federal Government of the Sates of the Sat beyond any hope of salvation, if we can the Union, so clearly so that upon the only bring out the vote, and show the termination of hostilities it was not even voters the true meaning of the canvass."

A Few Items from Knoxville.

That able and fearless Democratic Herald, thus speaks of the case of Col-Ashby and the true and infernal "conspiracy" of the Brownlowites of that

We have long since ceased to be surprised at any statement that can be found in the Whig, however devoid of truth same authority with respect to New York or any other State, and thus the result of the presidential election may be con-We have long since ceased to be surand manliness it may be, and we only regard it as an additional evidence of its anscrupulousness to make party capital out of the death of Col Ashby, and to oga, and quarters engaged for as many more.

The Times yesterday morning, in an editorial various parties. Every man in Knoxville who knows anything about Col. tion, entreated him not to endanger his life in such a conflict. But Col. Ashby had been goaded and tortured by indictments and persecution, by the less of his property, by the pending of suits which prohibited his entering into business, until he was fairly driven to the wall, and like a lion at bay he turned upon one of his persecutors and, scoraing to take any advantage, he madly threw his own life away. The conspiracy, if conspiracy there were, was upon the other side. It was the conspiracy which has long existed with the Brownlow faction to suffer no man not in har-mony with them to live in Knoxville; it olution to the Senate for such further acmony with them to live in Knoxville; it was the same conspiracy that led mobs in the streets of Knozville, a few years ago, and wreaked its vengeance upon "rebels;" it was the conspiracy that now threatens to mob the office of this paper; and it was the same conspiracy that now proposes to deluge Tennessee with blood rather than suffer a peaceful assassins have construed our course to mean cowardice. We no longer coursel peace. War is what they evidently desire, and in God's name we say let it come. On Gay street, they (the Ashby sympathizers) have the majority. In the country we (the Radicals) have the majority. Our triends in the country tell us they are all armed and prepared to march into Knox-

The following items are also rather ex pressive of the condition of things which the "Senior Editor" is so gifted at forering at home. The Herald has in the me number the following paragraphs: same number the following paragraphs:
Lart Us Have Prace.—This is said to be Grant's motto, and the Whig ovidently understands it in its true sense. The Whig has always counseled peace in that sense. It has never desired war except with those who did not agree with it. It has opposed mob law invariably, except on a few occasions when the victim wars a negra. Now, however, the victim was a negra. Now, however, the voice of the Whig is for war. It thirsts for the conflict, and wishes to assist the commander of the United States troops here in drawing his saber again. We do

A LIVING DOG BETTER THAY A DEAD A LIVING DOG BETTER THAY A DEAD LION.—No one more fully appreciates the truth of this ancient maxim than the editors of the Whig. It is a notorious fact, that during the life of the late Col. Henry M. Ashby the Whig was never known to mention his name, for reasons which are well known to the community; but no sooner had the grave closed over his mortal remains, than the work of slander commenced.

We do not think the reputation of Col. Ashby can suffer from the malignant as-saults of the Whig, and it is not necessary for us to answer them, inasmuch as the community knows that they are alse in every particular.

BROWNLOW AND HIS SON.-Brownlow a monster, and the natural inference would be that he would be prolific of monstrosities. In this, however, he has been a failure. His eldest son, John, is by no means a monster. He is simply a weak dilution of his father's mendacity. He has espacity sufficient to tell a lie, but he has not brains enough to aspire to the telling of the truth. Besides, his to the telling of the truth. Besides, as moral capacity in other respects is very deficient. His idea of personal honor reaches no higher point than that of murdering his college class-mate in the most dastardly manner; and his notions of chivalry terminated in the wilful murder of a primary of war, who had any low—a degenerate son of an ignoble sire.

The President's Veto.

President Johnson yesterday sent in his veto of the electoral college resolution. It has passed the Senate nevertheless by 45 to 8, and the House by 134 to But the reasons of the President and the truth of his conclusions will not The following is the concluding part of the message; The true meaning of the resolution is Assuming this to be the true construcwell known that a portion of the inhabitants of the States of New York and Virresolution, the people of Virginia, un-less they comply with the terms it pre-sorloes, are denied the right of voting for a President and Vice President, while the people of New York, a portion of the inhabitants of which State were also in rebellion, are permitted to have journal at Knoxville, the Press and their electoral vote counted without undergoing the process of reconstruc-tion prescribed for Virginia New York is no more a State than Virginia, and one is as much entitled to be represented in the electoral college as the other. If Congress has the right to deprive Virginia of this right, it can exercise the the Presidential election may be con-tralled and determined by Congress, and the people be deprived of their rights under a Constitution to choose a Presi-dent and Vice-President of the United States, as if Congress were to provide by law that the votes of none of the States should be received and counted if cast for a candidate who differed in polit ical sentiment with a majority of the two Houses. Such legislation would at once be condemned by the country as unconstitutional, revolutionary and an usurpation power, as no power exists in the Consti-tution authorizing such a joint resolution as the proposed law, the only reference being that one would be more palpably unconstitutional and revolutionary than the other. One would rest upon the radical error that Congress has the right to prescribe terms and conditions as to the right of the people of the States to cast their votes for President and Vice President, and for the reasons thus indicated,

What of the Night?

The Nashville Union and Dispatch commenting on the situation in Tennessee, the call of the legislature, and the semi-official expressions of the malign influences and throats which are given out by the "Senior Editor," Governor, through his organ at Knoxville, says:

The Governor's paper counsels peace no longer. The laws of the State which are ample for the protection of life and property, if executed in their letter and spirit, are to be thrown aside as weak inventions, and an infuriated mob-is to take the redress of wrongs, whether real or imaginary, into be done in Knox county, what as-surance have the people that it will not be the rule in every county where the Radicals feel they have the numerical arrength to carry it out? This is the boldest step toward a reign of terror, such as characterized France in the days of the revolution, that has ever been put forth by a Governor in any State in this forth by a Governor in any State in this Union, and it shows the imminent danger which menaces the peace and the liberty of the citizen in this State. While an organ of the State government is deregiment to domineer over the political opponents of that administration in West Tennessee, the Governor's own paper, published under his eye, is counseling a resort to the law of the mob. We have drifted more the law of the dangerous edge of rapidly "npon the dangerous edge of things" than the great body of the people of the State perhaps imagine. If bloody work does not follow the revolu-tionary teachings of the Governor's own paper, it certainly will not be because the lawless among his political ciberents will not consider themselves licensed to resort to the pistol and bindgroun to enforce Radical ideas and Radical
